

Aix-en-Provence

The City of a Thousand Fountains

Visit Aix (the “Scottsdale” of Provence) and live like a local.
Oui. Oui.

Suggested Ideas of Sights To See & Fun To Have:

MINI TRAM

The Mini Tram will give you a convenient summary of all the major sights. It's a stylish 57-seater road train, with a couple of cool high-tech touches, including multi-lingual commentary via a headset.

Another neat touch is the roof, which is transparent so you won't have to crane your neck to see the loftier buildings. So you'll pick up tidbits about the city's history that might otherwise have passed you by. Tours take 45 minutes.

TOP MUST-DO's in Aix-en-Provence

1. City of 1000 Fountains

Aix en Provence is home to over a hundred beautiful fountains. Many of these are Roman springs and have been hydrating Aix for thousands of years, even if their design has changed.

2. Old Aix

Don't resist the urge to see every nook and cranny of Aix' old centre for its gorgeous architecture, charming markets, unexpected historical flourishes and the constant feeling that you're walking in the shoes of great artists and writers. There are cafes, boutiques, classic French amenities and galleries, and there's still a sense of bustle after midnight in summer.

3. Cours Mirabeau

Wander around the oldest part of Aix - Cours Mirabeau, wide walkway shaded by rows of lush plane trees, and is replete with mansions and restaurants that were the haunts of French cultural icons like Camus, Cézanne and Zola.

4. Atelier Cézanne

About 15 minutes on foot from the centre of town, surrounded by olive groves and fig orchards on the Lauves Hill is Paul Cézanne's studio where he worked for the last four years of his life.

5. Musée Granet

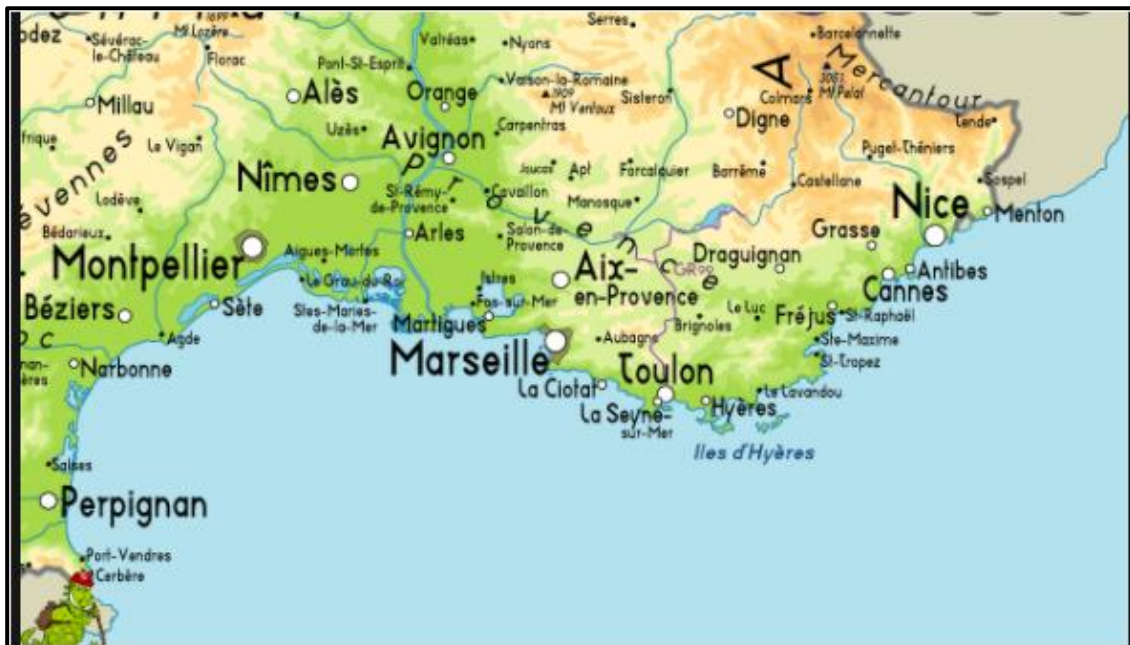

In the old priory buildings of the Église Saint-Jean-de-Malte, the Musée Granet has a collection of almost 12,000 paintings, sculptures and historic artefacts - plus a must-sees room dedicated to Cézanne, with nine oil paintings by the post-impressionist.

6. Place des Quatre-Dauphins

Stop at Place des Quatre-Dauphins for a photo of the fountain with four sculpted dolphins and dating 1667. Most agree that it's the loveliest fountain in the city, which is saying a lot for Aix.

7. Markets

There are food markets on Place des Prêcheurs and Place de la Madeleine on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturday, and one every day on Place Richelme.
