Finally there are the funny facts about Iceland and the places you must see in Reykjavik. The walking tour is laid out in an informative and comic way, with room for personal questions. Our walking tour ends at the Ice Bar.

Magic Ice, Reykjavik Iceland

4:30pm Happy Hour Reykjavik Magic Ice Bar- the only ice bar and gallery in Iceland.

When you enter, you'll be greeted by friendly staff and given a complimentary poncho and gloves. Then, cross the threshold into an arctic wonder whose walls are covered with over 60 tons of ice carved by international ice artists. These carvings tell the adventure-filled stories and myths of the Norwegian Viking sailors who made their way over the rough Atlantic seas long ago to start a new life in the land of fire and ice.

To top off the experience, receive an included Magic Ice Bar signature drink, in a glass made of ice. Sip on this locally-sourced beverage as you explore the intricate stories formed in ice all around you. Extra drinks are available to purchase.
